

Session Three: The Playbook

INTRODUCTION

What do you do if you discover that you're running someone else's race? What do you do if you have a desire to find God's plan for your life but there is this restlessness inside of you know that you're nowhere close? Is it ever too late?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What is the first thing that comes to mind when you think of the phrase, "God's plan for your life"?
2. Based on your gifts and interests, what is your ideal job?
3. When have you experienced frustration because you were working in ways outside your God-given wiring?
4. Read 1 Timothy 4:14-6. What are some ways you can identify God's thumbprint on your life?
5. How can you be both humble, yet honest, about your gifts without downplaying or neglecting them?
6. What opportunities do you see around you for you to leverage your gifts?

Moving Forward

God created you, and his thumbprints are clues about his plans for you. The more you understand God's thumbprints on you, the better you are able to discern his plans for you. We have added a spiritual gifts inventory to the website devoted for this series <https://www.austintowngrace.com/game-plan.html> to help you identify your gifts, skills, and passions. From there, leverage opportunities to use your gifts.

CHANGING YOUR MIND

Do not neglect your gift, which was given you through prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you. Be diligent in these matters; give yourself wholly to them, so that everyone may see your progress.
